

6-16-1944

The Cedarville Herald, June 16, 1944

Cedarville University

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedarville_herald

Part of the Civic and Community Engagement Commons, Family, Life Course, and Society Commons, Journalism Studies Commons, and the Mass Communication Commons

Recommended Citation

Cedarville University, "The Cedarville Herald, June 16, 1944" (1944). The Cedarville Herald. 2107.
http://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/cedarville_herald/2107

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Cedarville Herald by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

INSURE your future
Save with WAR BONDS

The Cedarville Herald

Americans For America — America For Americans

Your War Bond Investment Is Your Insurance
In America

SIXTY-SEVENTH YEAR No. 29.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1944

PRICE, $1.50 A YEAR

CONGRESSIONAL HAPPENINGS IN WASHINGTON

By CLARENCE J. BROWN
Member of Congress

D Day brought mingled and varied reactions on Capitol Hill. Members of Congress listened to the radio announcements and read the short and terse press dispatches on the bulletin boards with avid interest. The House convened at 11:00 A. M. on D. Day, at which time Chairman James S. Montgomery lead the national legislators in a program of prayer for the gallant young Americans and their allies who were at that moment fighting their way onto the soil of Europe. The Congress then took up its legislative work where it had left off the day before. There was nothing else to do on the home front but to carry on.

More than half of the Members of Congress have sons in America's fighting forces. Already a dozen or more have made the supreme sacrifice—killed in action. Many are serving with the invasion forces, while others are now fighting in Italy or in the South Pacific. Consequently many Members of the Congress have a deep personal interest, as well as a patriotic one, in the exploits of our fighting men. Out in the lobbies of the House and Senate chambers huge war maps are set up, and bulletins from the War and Navy Departments and press associations are posted at frequent intervals; for it is by this means that Members keep in constant touch with the latest war developments while carrying on their legislative work.

As predicted last week, Administrative forces were able to forestall and prevent the adoption of legislation that would make mandatory immediate court martial proceedings against Admiral Kimmel and General Short, who were in command in Hawaii at the time of Pearl Harbor. Instead, the time for holding such court martial would prove a great part of the responsibility for the Pearl Harbor tragedy of December 7, 1941, rested with high government officials other than Admiral Kimmel and General Short. One thing does seem evident—the public has not yet been told the whole truth about Pearl Harbor.

By the time this column appears in print the House will have finished consideration of the bill to extend the life of the Price Control Act, under which the Office of Price Administration functions. However, before the bill can finally be sent to the President for his consideration, differences between the House and Senate versions of the new law must be in conference committee, and it will be at least another week before the country will know just what new limitations or restrictions, if any have been placed upon bureaucratic activities of the OPA as a result of the new legislation.

Along the political front it is reported Eleanor Roosevelt will spend the Summer vacation and Autumn quietly at her home in Hyde Park, New York, where she will keep out of the public eye as much as possible all as a result of the growing revolt in the South against the Fourth term. However, many of those who have watched the activities of the First Lady during the past years insist it will take more than a political revolution to keep her at home—and especially to keep her quiet. Another political report current here is that the President will make no direct campaign for re-election, but will, instead, spend much time in England and liberated France prior to the election, perhaps with the thought that his presence there will impress the American people with the idea his continuation in office is necessary during the war emergency and the peace negotiations that will follow—or, at least that is what his political advisors are hoping. It is also reported that the President plans on becoming more nationalistic in his talk and actions as the weeks go by, and that such a course would undoubtedly aid his candidacy in the great Mid-West.

BERRY CROP TO BE EARLY

From reports we get we are to have one of the biggest blackberry crops ever this year. The crop will be ten days earlier than usual and the bushes are now in full bloom and with the early varieties the berries are now formed. Blackberry pie! One of the few kinds the modern cooks have never found a way to spoil.

RESEARCH CLUB PICNIC FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 30

The annual Research Club picnic will be held Friday evening at 7:30, prompt, on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Galloway, Xenia Ave.

ALONG FARM FRONT

E. A. Drake, Co. Agricultural Agent

SOIL SAMPLES TESTER FREE

Farmers interested in having soil samples tested are urged to bring them to the State Soils Testing Laboratory which will visit Xenia, Friday, June 16. Dr. F. J. Salter and E. P. Reed of Ohio State University will accompany the laboratory to make soils and crops recommendations. Laboratory technicians will determine the active calcium, acidity, available phosphorus and available potash in each soil sample and from this analysis specific fertilizers and liming practices for various crops can be made. The laboratory was secured by the Agricultural Extension Service and will be set up in the rear of the AAA office and all testing and recommending is made without charge.

JAMACIAN LABORERS ARRIVE THURSDAY

One hundred seventy five Jamaican farm laborers are scheduled to arrive at the Farm Labor camp at Bryan State Park, Thursday, June 15. The men will board themselves and return to the camp each night. A wage rate of 50¢ per hour has been set for these workers, from the time of arrival to leaving the farm. Farmers interested in using these men are asked to notify the county agent's office, since orders will be given preference as received.

4-H CAMP FACULTY SCHOOL

Camp Clifton faculty members who will assist with the various 4-H club camps to be held at this camp during July and August will meet at the Springfield YMCA, Friday, June 16, for their training meeting. The meeting opens with registration at 10:00 A. M. and closes at 3:30 P. M. Instructors include C. C. Lang and Eva Kinsey, Asst. state club leaders, and R. Bruce Tom, recreation leader, all of Ohio State University; Pauline Mills, home demonstration agent, of Champaign county; R. R. Starbuck, county agent of Logan county; and Mrs. Severd Peterson of Clinton Co.

ALABAMA WORKERS AVAILABLE

Experienced farm workers from Alabama will be available for work on Greene County farms from July 1 to September 1. The workers are white and can live either in camps or farm homes and are to be paid 40¢ per hour plus board and room. Transportation, health examination and medical care will be supplied at no expense to the farmer. A contract must be signed by the employer before workers are delivered. Contracts must cover at least a 30 day period. However, if workers are unable to adjust themselves to the work assigned, they will be returned to Alabama, after three trials with different employers in the county.

MAXIMUM POULTRY PRICES FOR JUNE

The maximum prices which farmers may charge on retail sales to ultimate consumers for the month of June have been issued by the OPA. The live-weight price for broilers and fryers is 36¢ per pound and the table dressed price is 52¢. The roasters and light capon live-weight price is 36¢ and the table dressed price is 55¢ per pound. Hens are 32¢ and 30¢ while roosters are 27¢ and 43¢ cents respectively.

CATTLE FEEDING COSTS UP

The result of the cattle feeding tests at Madison County Experiment Farm show that the average cost per 100 pounds of gain when corn silage was fed was $13.95. In a similar lot of cattle where corn silage was fed, the cost was $15.58. When no silage was used and corn and cob meal was fed, the cost was $17.83 per hundred pounds.

The cost of gain on these cattle was much higher than a year ago due to higher feed costs. The gain on the corn silage fed cattle was $3.51 per cwt. more than last year while the corn silage fed cattle cost $2.73 per cwt. more. This is one of the reasons why the number of cattle in feedlots is extremely small.

BEAN BETTLES PLENTIFUL

Indications are that the Mexican bean beetle will be more injurious to victory garden beans this year than in 1943. The insect is appearing earlier and in larger numbers than last year.

The best insecticide is a 0.5 percent rotenone applied evenly on the under side of the leaves with a duster. Two ounces of dust will cover from 50 to 75 feet of rows of bush beans, depending on their size. Applications need not be made when dew is on Rotenone with a sulfur carrier is preferable for beans.

Martin H. Bartels Will Leave Here For Cincinnati School Post

MARTIN H. BARTELS

Supt. M. H. Bartels of the public schools is to leave his work here and has accepted a position with the Cincinnati Board of Education. Supt. Bartels notified the local board two weeks ago of his offer but no official announcement could be made until the Cincinnati Board took official action, which was done Monday of this week. Mr. Bartels will be research assistant on the administration staff of the Cincinnati schools, effective July 1. His work will be administrative.

Mr. Bartels came to Cedarville two years ago from the Adamsville school in Muskingum County, where he was located seven years. With his wife and two sons, Robert and Richard, they will be located shortly in the Queen City.

Vernon C. Jaillat, head of the physical education department for the last year has offered his resignation to accept a similar one with the Jefferson township school near Dayton. He is a native of Hillsboro and has been in school work for 21 years. He is a member of the LePetite French Society in Washington, D. C. A third resignation is that of Mrs. Lucile Tanner Collins, head of the high school commercial department for the past three years. She has decided to enter war work. Her place has not been filled by the board.

Mr. Harry Wallace, coach of the Ross Twp. Schools has been elected to head the physical education department of the local schools.

Red Cross Wants 1,000 Blood Donors in Aug.

A mobile unit of the Cincinnati Hamilton County Red Cross blood donor service will make its eighth visit to the county at Xenia for a five-day period, Aug. 15 to Aug. 19. The visit had been scheduled for Aug. 1-5 but the dates were changed in order not to conflict with the county fair that week. The quota for the visit is 1,000 donors, and the Red Cross officials said this number of volunteers must be signed up within the next six weeks or the unit will not visit the county. The last visit of the unit was done from satisfactory as only 550 donors of the requested 1,000 appeared. The appeal is a worthy one, in fact necessary to support the injured in army service. Register right away.

FRED DOBBINS PATIENT IN UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

Mr. Fred Dobbins, prominent farmer, underwent a major operation at University Hospital, Columbus, Tuesday. He is reported as being in good condition. Mrs. Dobbins has been with him for several days.

JAMES HOWARD FINNEY NOW FIRST LIEUTENANT

Word has been received here by Mrs. E. E. Finney that her son, James Howard Finney, has been given the rank of First Lieutenant in the 330th Bomb Group, now stationed near Delhart, Texas.

A Variety Show, sponsored by the High Jinks Club and directed by Mrs. Ann Collins Smith, is to be presented June 29 at 8:30 at the opera house. The show will highlight two one-act plays, "The Antics of Spring", and "Blue Teapot". The cast for the first play includes William Hall, Martin Weiner, Barbara Smith, Clara Galloway, Jean Bradfute, George Abels. For the second play the following, William Ferguson, Janet Williamson, Helen Williamson, William Irvine, Paul Strewing.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT WEEK OF JUNE 23, 1944

In the issue of Friday, June 23rd will appear not only a special announcement but a very unusual one to all readers and patrons. It will be something new for the Herald, and something this paper has never attempted before. Wait for the coming announcement on Friday, June 23rd.

Postwar Plan Group Is Organized For Greene County

At a meeting of the Greene County Postwar Planning Commission Tuesday evening in Xenia, Ralph O. Spahr, chairman of the board of county commissioners, was chosen chairman of the group.

The plan is to provide a program of projects and improvements so as to provide employment for workers in the readjustment period following the war. Similar commissions are being set up in other Ohio counties under the Ohio Postwar Program Commission, appointed by Gov. John W. Bricker, with Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert as chairman.

The county commission is composed of Commissioners Spahr, Charles F. Greer and Hugh Turnbull, with W. C. Hiff, Cedarville; Charles Beaver, of Beavercreek Twp., and J. H. Horner, Yellow Springs, named for three years; Earl Ritenour, Ross Twp.; Thurman Middleton, Caesars Creek Twp. and James Byrd, Xenia Twp., two-year terms; and J. R. Penewit, Bellbrook, and George E. Warren, Osborn, one-year terms. Mr. Horner was named secretary of the group.

The commission is empowered to employ engineers and others to formulate its program and any expenses incurred will be paid from appropriations set aside for this purpose by the county commissioners.

No projects have been outlined as yet but will be taken up probably at the next meeting of the group.

Cedarville Soldier Gets Purple Heart

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Swaney, of the Columbus Pike, have been informed that their son, Tech. Fifth Grade, Clifton E. Swaney, was injured overseas and that the Purple Heart is being sent to the parents. It is said Swaney was recently injured on the left arm and head by a charge of shrapnel from a bursting shell, but forty-eight hours later he was again on duty. He is said to have been at the Anzio Beachhead. He has been overseas two years and was shot in the knee while in North African service by another American soldier. He has been in the army the past four years.

Farmer Takes Life With His Own Rifle

Sitting on a bed in the farm home which he shared with his brother, Charles Neal, 71, placed a .22 rifle to his mouth and shot himself Monday afternoon. Investigation was made by Sheriff Walton Spahr and Dr. H. C. Schick, the latter holding suicide as the motive. The deceased was a bachelor and had been ill for several months. The brother, William, entered the home after hearing the shot. The farm is in Sugar Creek Twp. Besides the brother a sister survives.

FRED DOBBINS PATIENT IN UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

Mr. Fred Dobbins, prominent farmer, underwent a major operation at University Hospital, Columbus, Tuesday. He is reported as being in good condition. Mrs. Dobbins has been with him for several days.

JAMES HOWARD FINNEY NOW FIRST LIEUTENANT

Word has been received here by Mrs. E. E. Finney that her son, James Howard Finney, has been given the rank of First Lieutenant in the 330th Bomb Group, now stationed near Delhart, Texas.

LIEUT. JOSEPH W. WADDLE

Joseph W. Waddle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Waddle, who is stationed at Birmingham, Ala. Air Base, has been promoted to the rank of 1st Lieutenant.

DEATH CALLS W. R. McCHESNEY

WILBERT RENWICK McCHESNEY

LIFE REVIEW OF DR. W. R. McCHESNEY

By DR. F. A. JURKAT

Wilbert Renwick McChesney, was born on a farm near Rose Point, Lawrence County, Pa., on July 7, 1871. In 1884 the family removed to New Galilee, Pa., where he finished his elementary education. In 1887 he entered Greensburg Academy, Darlington, Pa., famous as the institution where William H. McGuffey received his secondary education. Here Dr. McChesney attended two years, enabling him to enter the Sophomore year at Franklin College, New Athens, Ohio, from which he was graduated in 1892 with second honors, in a class of scholastic giants. During his senior year he also taught Latin and Greek, and upon graduation was immediately elected professor of that chair, which he occupied the next two years.

On the inauguration of Cedarville College in 1894, he was elected senior professor at that institution, continuing to teach Latin and Greek, and adding thereto Philosophy and kindred subjects. His powers and responsibilities amounted to that of dean, without the specific title. From that moment on, Cedarville College was the center of his existence, and his prosperity his chief aim in life. For fifty years he continued to teach in Cedarville College, the culmination being the banquet in his honor given at Xenia a few months ago. He was elected Vice-President in 1909 Dean in 1913, and President in 1915, succeeding upon the retirement of Dr. David McKinney. For the next twenty-five years he directed the fortunes of that institution, retiring at his own request in his seventieth year. He was given the title of President Emeritus, and continued his teaching duties as usual until his fifty years of service had been rounded out.

His natural abilities as an interesting teacher had long since come to the attention of the College of Wooster, and he was employed there during summer sessions intermittently from 1905 to 1914. The teacher-students carried his name over the state, and he became known by reputation to multitudes that never saw him. Honorary degrees came to him thick and fast: A. M. from Franklin College in 1894; Ph. D. from Franklin College in 1906; D. D. from Tarkio College in 1915; and LL. D. from Cedarville College in 1940, as a parting honor upon his retirement from the presidency.

In 1913, when the Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary was removed from Philadelphia to Cedarville, the added duties of membership in that faculty were added to him. For thirty-one years he taught Greek and Systematic Theology and related subjects to groups of consecrated young men, many of whom are peers to graduates of much larger seminaries, and all of whom admit their indebtedness to him for their knowledge of theology, and for what measure of success that they have had as preachers and pastors. Upon the death of Dr. J. L. Chesnut in 1918, Dr. McChesney became also Dean of the seminary, which office he held until his death.

Dr. McChesney was a versatile man, personally and officially. He knew by instinct that men are individuals and must be treated as such. He knew that no man can exert influence upon groups as groups. Hence his appeal to the individual man. He did not have to be told that a man that hath friends must show himself friendly. That was a native part of his mental endowment, and came forth as spontaneously as water from a spring. Constraint and formality had no part in his mental makeup. People who met him for the first time felt as completely at ease in his presence as if they had known him for years. He was affable without being familiar, courteous without being obsequious, and obliging without having an ax to grind. Born and raised in plain home, his head was not turned when success came to him. His friends in youth were his friends in old age, and his new young friends of later days felt that he was young with them. He was constantly trying new things, and exploring new fields of thought and action, but at the same time retaining what was worth while in the old. He believed in proving all things and holding fast to that which is good. This golden mean between conservatism and radicalism enabled his mind to be firmly rooted in the eternal verities; but at the same time offered unlimited room for expansion into the upper reaches of human activity.

Dr. McChesney was a natural-born orator. From his earliest childhood this tendency manifested itself and could not be repressed. As he grew older, formal training gave accurate direction to the development of this talent, but had nothing to add to its native force. Eighty performances in three years is his record in college literary society, and from this to his first sermon in 1893 was a natural step. The majority of his public speaking was from the pulpit, and the moral cast appropriate to this branch of eloquence was manifested in all his addresses and speeches outside of the pulpit. He had an extensive vocabulary, as mastery of sentence structure, and a store-house of imagery; and by wide reading he was continually adding new ideas, which assimilated themselves, as it were, into his mental system. He had the rare gift of keeping the outline of his speeches in his head, progressing from one point to the next in so natural and easy manner, that those who did not know him must have imagined that he had written out the speech and committed it word for word. His favorite speech was on Lincoln, which he delivered many times, and which called forth the acclaim of the Ohio Legislature when he was called upon to deliver it before them.

In profession, Dr. McChesney must be classed as a clergyman, although he never held a charge. The McChesney family is a notable one in the annals of the Scotch Reformation. At an early age he joined the church of his family at New Galilee, Pa., the New Light Reformed Presbyterian (New Light Covenant), under the pastorate of Rev. Alexander Savage, who held that charge over fifty years. One of Dr. Savage's self-imposed duties was the turning of promising young men to the ministry, and opening his library to their use. Small wonder then, that with home influence groups as groups. Hence his appeal to the individual man. He did not have to be told that a man that hath friends must show himself friendly. That was a native part of his mental endowment, and came forth as spontaneously as water from a spring. Constraint and formality had no part in his mental makeup. People who met him for the first time felt as completely at ease in his presence as if they had known him for years. He was affable without being familiar, courteous without being obsequious, and obliging without having an ax to grind. Born and raised in plain home, his head was not turned when success came to him. His friends in youth were his friends in old age, and his new young friends of later days felt that he was young with them. He was constantly trying new things, and exploring new fields of thought and action, but at the same time retaining what was worth while in the old. He believed in proving all things and holding fast to that which is good. This golden mean between conservatism and radicalism enabled his mind to be firmly rooted in the eternal verities; but at the same time offered unlimited room for expansion into the upper reaches of human activity.

Dr. McChesney was a natural-born orator. From his earliest childhood this tendency manifested itself and could not be repressed. As he grew older, formal training gave accurate direction to the development of this talent, but had nothing to add to its native force. Eighty performances in three years is his record in college literary society, and from this to his first sermon in 1893 was a natural step. The majority of his public speaking was from the pulpit, and the moral cast appropriate to this branch of eloquence was manifested in all his addresses and speeches outside of the pulpit. He had an extensive vocabulary, as mastery of sentence structure, and a store-house of imagery; and by wide reading he was continually adding new ideas, which assimilated themselves, as it were, into his mental system. He had the rare gift of keeping the outline of his speeches in his head, progressing from one point to the next in so natural and easy manner, that those who did not know him must have imagined that he had written out the speech and committed it word for word. His favorite speech was on Lincoln, which he delivered many times, and which called forth the acclaim of the Ohio Legislature when he was called upon to deliver it before them.

In profession, Dr. McChesney must be classed as a clergyman, although he never held a charge. The McChesney family is a notable one in the annals of the Scotch Reformation. At an early age he joined the church of his family at New Galilee, Pa., the New Light Reformed Presbyterian (New Light Covenant), under the pastorate of Rev. Alexander Savage, who held that charge over fifty years. One of Dr. Savage's self-imposed duties was the turning of promising young men to the ministry, and opening his library to their use. Small wonder then, that with home influence groups as groups. Hence his appeal to the individual man. He did not have to be told that a man that hath friends must show himself friendly. That was a native part of his mental endowment, and came forth as spontaneously as water from a spring. Constraint and formality had no part in his mental makeup. People who met him for the first time felt as completely at ease in his presence as if they had known him for years. He was affable without being familiar, courteous without being obsequious, and obliging without having an ax to grind. Born and raised in plain home, his head was not turned when success came to him. His friends in youth were his friends in old age, and his new young friends of later days felt that he was young with them. He was constantly trying new things, and exploring new fields of thought and action, but at the same time retaining what was worth while in the old. He believed in proving all things and holding fast to that which is good. This golden mean between conservatism and radicalism enabled his mind to be firmly rooted in the eternal verities; but at the same time offered unlimited room for expansion into the upper reaches of human activity.

Dr. McChesney was a versatile man, personally and officially. He knew by instinct that men are individuals and must be treated as such. He knew that no man can exert influence upon groups as groups. Hence his appeal to the individual man. He did not have to be told that a man that hath friends must show himself friendly. That was a native part of his mental endowment, and came forth as spontaneously as water from a spring. Constraint and formality had no part in his mental makeup. People who met him for the first time felt as completely at ease in his presence as if they had known him for years. He was affable without being familiar, courteous without being obsequious, and obliging without having an ax to grind. Born and raised in plain home, his head was not turned when success came to him. His friends in youth were his friends in old age, and his new young friends of later days felt that he was young with them. He was constantly trying new things, and exploring new fields of thought and action, but at the same time retaining what was worth while in the old. He believed in proving all things and holding fast to that which is good. This golden mean between conservatism and radicalism enabled his mind to be firmly rooted in the eternal verities; but at the same time offered unlimited room for expansion into the upper reaches of human activity.

(Continued on Page Three)

TRIBUTE PAID TO EDUCATOR AND CITIZEN

The death of Wilbert Renwick McChesney, D. D., at University Hospital, Columbus, early Tuesday morning, brought a pall of gloom over the community realizing a "First Citizen" had been taken not only from the community, but from the religious circles and the public schools as well as Cedarville College, where he had given of his energy and effort for a full fifty years. From the first reports of his illness his hundreds of friends sought inquiry daily for reports on his condition. He had suffered an attack of the grip and after attending the one day session of the legislature to pass the soldier voting law, he returned home but with a new attack with complications that his weakened body could not stand.

Dr. McChesney had an abiding faith in his work in the classroom, the pulpit and on the platform. He lived each day what he preached and what he taught as well as what he advocated for the uplift of his fellow citizens. His presence and his influence will be sadly missed by all, not only locally but in the county and state.

In view of the authentic review of the life work of Dr. McChesney by his life-long friend and associate, Dr. F. A. Jurkat, there is little we can add to that record.

The funeral service was held from the First Presbyterian Church, Thursday afternoon, there being many of his associates in the field of education, the ministry, the citizenry and from the official life of county and state, as well as the host of fellow citizens with whom he met daily.

The funeral service opened with the reading of the scripture by Rev. Gavlin Reilly, D. D., Columbus, followed by prayer by Rev. Paul Elliott of the local congregation. Dr. F. A. Jurkat read the obituary as a life-long friend and associate in the class room of Cedarville College and as a minister of the Gospel. Rev. W. W. Hiff, an alumnus of Cedarville College and a former pastor in Chicago, spoke of the deceased covering the span of life as he knew him from class room to pulpit and platform. Pres. Ira D. Weyhinger Cedarville College, applied the successful life of Dr. McChesney and his fifty years of unselfish service and devotion to Cedarville College to the second half century of the institution that is to carry on the influence of Dr. McChesney and the foundation he has laid.

Rev. Sherry of the First Reformed Church, Xenia, representing the Ministerial Association, gave the closing prayer.

Music was furnished during the service by a quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Turnbull, Mrs. Walter Corry and Mr. John Powers, with Mrs. Rankin McMillan at the organ.

Ten members of the House of Representatives and one Senator from the Fifth-Sixth District, were honorary pall bearers and represented the State of Ohio officially. They were: Representatives Thomas Stevens, Jack Woods, Gilbert A. Morris, Montgom-

(Continued on page three)

Disposal Plant Has Been Revived By Village Council

A special meeting of council was held Tuesday evening, when the question of the sewerage disposal plant was revived.

Attorneys Marcus McCallister of Smith, McCallister & Gibeay, village solicitors, and Marcus Shoup, representing Mr. H. A. Tyson, were present, with Engineer R. T. Parrish, Dayton, also present. The latter had prepared the plans and specifications and made surveys for the project under authority of a resolution passed by council some months ago. He asked that council sign his contract for the work completed but council declined at this time.

The village has been using the old paper mill reservoir for sewerage disposal, the land now being owned by Mr. Tyson. More than a year ago the notified council that he desired the open ditch be closed and arrangements be made for a more sanitary plan as it was a damage to his property the way it was operated.

This led to adopting plans for a disposal plant and bids were received by the village but far above the estimate of the engineer. The labor situation caused contractors to bid high. Then it developed that the government probably would not permit labor for a new improvement and some critical material necessary was under priority.

A committee composed of Walter Cummings, G. H. Hartman and Charles Townsley was named to confer with Mr. Tyson.

(Continued on Page Three)

THE CEDARVILLE HERALD

KARL H. BULL — EDITOR AND PUBLISHER
MEMBER—National Editorial Assoc.; Ohio Newspaper Assoc.; Miami Valley Press, Assn.Entered at the Post Office, Cedarville, Ohio, October 31, 1887, as second class matter.

FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1944

ROOSEVELT NOMINATION ALMOST UNANIMOUS

The Socialist party has endorsed Franklin D. Roosevelt for re-nomination.

The Socialist Labor party has endorsed Franklin D. Roosevelt for re-nomination.

The Communist party has endorsed Franklin D. Roosevelt for re-nomination.

A handful of the I. W. W. in the far west has endorsed Franklin D. Roosevelt for re-nomination.

The CIO has endorsed Franklin D. Roosevelt for re-nomination.

The Democratic convention will meet in Chicago in July to endorse Franklin D. Roosevelt. This will not be a unanimous nomination. The shadow of Thomas Jefferson hangs over the delegations from Texas, Mississippi and South Carolina, which means little to a candidate that has all the dreamers, the radicals, and the cults with him, except "Father Devine, FDR's across the Hudson river neighbor. The cult will probably await to see whether Roosevelt comes out for equal rights at the ballot box. He has not expressed himself on that issue openly.

NEW DEAL MEDDLING IN FRENCH POLITICS

With Winston Churchill and the British demanding recognition of De Gaulle, French leader, and the New Deal opposing that faction, French politics is attracting as much interest as the invasion. The British and New Dealers have all but broken over the French situation.

A few days ago a Canadian woman speaking over station WHIO, Columbia System, from Ontario, Canada, fired her guns on the New Deal and attacked Roosevelt for opposing De Gaulle. She also charged the New Deal as having printed bogus French money for circulation in France and had it circulated to influence natives against their leader. The speaker appealed for support of the American people to back De Gaulle. She said European countries as well as the British and Canadians protested the use of New Deal bogus French money to deceive the French.

Is there anything under the moral law the New Dealers will not do?

Opens Sunday At Xenia Theater

Betty Grable and Kay Francis in "Four Jills in a Jeep," based on actual experience of Kay Francis, Carole Landis, Martha Raye, Mitz Mayfair.

Xenia Theatre—Xenia, O.
2 DAYS ONLYWednesday and Thursday
JUNE 21-22

WINNER OF

5
ACADEMY AWARDS

Including JENNIFER JONES' prize winning performance

PRICES—MATINEE, ADULTS 75c—CHILDREN 40c
AFTER 5:00 P. M. ADULTS $1.10—CHILDREN 55c
SHOWS AT 2:00—5:15—8:30 P. M.

HERALD WANT AND SALE ADS PAY

Child delinquency is being debated all over the nation. Who is at fault, the officials, the children or the parents? Some say the war but it is our opinion the parents are more at fault. What will cure the situation that is undermining the habits and in many cases the character of the younger generations? Cities are trying to find a solution. Some have tried the curfew with success. Others say it will not work unless the parents do their part. The officers find their hands are more or less tied due to the conflict of Ohio laws, or probably where the law applies to juveniles and their elders. Officers cannot arrest children more than turn them over to the juvenile court, the only court that can handle cases of minors.

But parents have a responsibility due to acts of their children wherein there is any damage to property. It has been held in court decisions that parents can be held for all damage. If parents do not exercise control over their children they can be fined and sentenced to prison. A few parents called before the bar of justice might do more good than any curfew law or dragging children into a juvenile court.

The Cincinnati Enquirer editorially comments on "Better Men and Women." "Every speaker these days dwells on the brave new world when peace comes. We are going to make all things over. We are going to cast the future in some divine mold." Of course, this is all very well. But we must begin at the bottom with the boys and the girls if we are to have the ideal society of which the dreamers tell us. And so far no better way has been found than that of the Bible, which bids us to train the young in the way they should go and when they are old they will not depart from it." You do not have to wave a New Deal banner to subscribe to such sentiment. Some years ago "Dusty" Miller at a "Father and Son" banquet here made a statement that has never lost its place with the writer: "I never get exercised about what a boy does until I see him doing some of the same things his father does." Here is some logic for determining how to handle the boy and girl question. As the mother sits in a beer parlor sipping beer with a youngster on her lap, there is nothing that can be done for contributing to the delinquency of a child in such a case but drag her into court and give her a 30 day visit in the county jail. The beer hall proprietor that permits such can also be given a 30 day vacation with any law enforcement agency. Delinquency can start with both the mother and the beer hall proprietor.

We dropped in on our old friend, C. H. Crouse several days ago and for a brief half hour had a real porch campaign about this and that of the days when both were Cedar as residents. And then our host pulled out an old issue of the Herald showing a picture of some vintage of the Crouse meat market taken years ago. It so happened the writer was in that picture and then "Butch" brings up the age question. That was soon settled. "When he was seventeen and I was fourteen." Nuff sed!

The New Dealers want you to eat more eggs. The hens have been over producing, that is, the New Dealers induced old biddy to work harder and longer and be patriotic. Now the social dreamers have ordered the incubators closed down by July 1. No more chicks. Such information was not necessary for the farmer's wife discovered weeks ago there was no profit in eggs, so biddy was turned out to pasture to root and pick for herself and thus save scarce feed. Uncle Sam, being induced by his New Deal cousins to finance egg producers for the war effort and to feed the world put a bottom under egg prices. Uncle Sam also started to purchase the egg output but old biddy still continued her production. Now Uncle Sam has 25,000,000 dozen eggs and no place to store them. For a time the army consumed thousands of cases of eggs but biddy just kept on abelling 'em out and Uncle Sam had to keep on buying them or eggs would drop to ten cents a dozen. That would be economic ruin. That would be far below the Mason AAA parity price of 1914, which was set as a guide for all farm income. Meantime the same authority set $10 and $12 a day for the war workers.

Last week a Columbus firm purchased a car load of eggs from Uncle Sam at seven cents a case of thirty dozens each. The eggs had developed whiskers from age and the firm was to grind and process the car load for stock food. If you want a car load of eggs, address Uncle Sam, 1800 Penn. ave., Washington, D. C. The eggs cost your Uncle Sam $8.10 a case plus freight to Chicago and return to Columbus. Uncle Sam has plenty of your money to pay 27c a dozen for eggs and then sell them for seven cents a 30-dozen case. Thursday, June 15 is income tax payment time. Send in your checks so Uncle Sam can continue in the egg business.

The following paragraph is from the weekly letter of Cong. Clarence J. Brown from Washington. It is news that has not been discussed much in the public prints. As for Democratic papers, the news has been smothered in this section of the country. With Churchill running the war at our expense, (70 per cent of the men in the invasion being our own boys) it is no wonder Roosevelt bows to the English bankers to regulate our money while the English pond is at the lowest ebb.

Recent war news has been of such great importance, especially during the past few days, that only passing attention has been given to the announcement an international monetary conference will be held at Bretton Woods, New Hampshire, soon. Yet informed persons insist the action taken at the Bretton Woods conference may prove as important to our future as the battles now going on in the invasion front. Unsound fiscal and monetary policies can wreck a nation and bring suffering and misery almost equal to that of war. They can affect the future peace, prosperity and happiness of all. Rumor has it that a devaluation of the American dollar, or an increase in the price of gold, whichever way you wish to put it, is scheduled to come soon after Bretton Woods. It is reported some of the New Deal financial theorists believe most of the financial costs of the war can be met by manipulating our nation's currency and gold reserve. Sir Maynard Keynes, the British economist who first sold Mr. Roosevelt on the New Deal spending program, has long been at work on plans for the Bretton Woods conference, and has been spending much time in Washington during recent months visiting with high government officials.

LEGAL NOTICE

Grace Pomeroy, whose present address is unknown, will take notice that on the 6th day of June, 1944, Robert Pomeroy, filed his petition for divorce against her on the grounds of wilful absence for over three years, said case being No. 23,525 on the docket of the Common Pleas Court of Greene County, Ohio. That said case will come on for hearing on or after July 22, 1944.

(5-9-6-7-21) FORREST DUNKLE, Attorney for Plaintiff

LEGAL NOTICE

First Lt. Marion B. Gibson, Plaintiff vs.
Marilyn Rae Gibson, Defendant.
Marilyn Rae Gibson, 611 N. E. Second Street, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., you will take notice that on the 11th day of May 1944, First Lt. Marion B. Gibson, your husband, filed his action for divorce against you in the Common Pleas Court of Greene County, Ohio, in Case No. 23,601, and that you are required to answer to said cause of action on or before six weeks from the first publication of this notice, which will be May 19th, 1944, or judgment may be taken against you. SMITH, McALLISTER & GIBNEY, Attorneys for the Plaintiff (5-19-6-6-23)

POULTRY

We pay highest prices for rabbits, ducks, turkeys, fries, hens, and roosters.
GINAVEN POULTRY PLANT
W. Second and Bellbrook. Phone 1103

H. E. HARDEN

AUCTIONEER

Phone 1347 W. I., Xenia, Ohio

RHEUMATISM???

Come to Browns' Drugs
Cedarville, O.
REINER'S

RINOL

The medicine your friends are all talking about—for Rheumatism, Arthritis, Neuritis, Lumbago.
Feb. 4, McH St.IMPROVED
UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL LessonBy HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago
Released by Western Newspaper Union

Lesson for June 18

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts are taken and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

A GOOD SOLDIER OF CHRIST JESUS

LESSON TEXT—Timothy 2:1-4, 6-12;
GOLDEN TEXT—Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.—Timothy 2:3.

"A good soldier"—what a wealth of meaning there is in that simple phrase. We think of our own home-town boys who have distinguished themselves in the service of their country. We think of the fact that there is in that American life which can meet a crisis and do it well. "A good soldier of Jesus Christ" is an even more significant phrase, speaking of that fine loyalty and devotion which Christians of all ages, of all nations, are giving to the Captain of our salvation, our Commander-in-Chief in the great spiritual warfare going on in all the earth.

In our lesson we note that the soldier is—

I. Obedient (2:1, 2).

There is something to be done, and the soldier is enlisted for the purpose of doing it. In the case of the Christian soldier, it is to see that the gospel message which he has received is passed on to others.

Personal work is God's method, one man telling another, and another another. This is to be a continuous matter, not just now and then, and each one is in turn to become a soul-winner.

As each one wins others and the witness is multiplied by the law of arithmetical progression, the total result is tremendous.

Why, then, has the entire world not been long since completely evangelized? Because we who are Christians are not all obedient soldiers of Christ.

II. Loyal (2:3, 4).

No soldier can serve with a divided loyalty. He cannot be running a business back home, or taking on outside interests to divert his attention. Being an efficient and useful soldier is his first and only business.

Have not the military authorities in this war asked those who are at home to keep the problems of the home and business out of the letters to men in the army? Do they not require a man to leave home and family and give his all to the service?

The soldier for Christ must please the Lord, even though it involve bearing "hardness." It is no soft and easy business to be a soldier. "Blood, sweat and tears" are the order of the day. Shall we not do as much for our Lord?

III. Prepared (2:8-12).

Training is of highest importance for a soldier. He must know what to do, and why he is doing it. He must understand the reason for obedience and the purpose of the warfare. In other words, he must be a disciplined man, prepared to serve effectively.

The soldier for the Lord is to "remember Jesus Christ," his resurrected Lord and victorious Commander. He knows for whom and under whose flag he fights.

He also knows (vv. 10, 11) that the message he bears is God's Word, and will succeed even though the bearer of it suffer and die. He is prepared to die, if need be, before he will deny his Leader (v. 12).

IV. Faithful (4:5-7).

Watch, endure, work, be faithful to the very end. Such is the obligation, yes, and privilege of the soldier for Christ. Paul was able to admonish young Timothy to such complete faithfulness because he had himself exemplified these virtues in his own life.

Those who are called upon to command men must themselves be good soldiers. There is an encouraging note from the battlefields of this great war. One learns that the commanding officers are at the front, not hidden away in dugouts far behind the lines. The men take courage as they see the bravery of their officers.

What that meant in Paul's case may be learned from the story of his life, which is condensed in a brief statement in II Corinthians 12:23-33. He really endured affliction for Christ's sake.

V. Victorious (v. 8).

A nation at war can stand the strain and bear the agony if it can be sure of ultimate victory. The faithful soldier shares the fruits of victory. The Christian soldier shall one day receive from his Lord and Leader a crown of righteousness.

When will that great day come? When Jesus Christ returns (Matt. 16:27). He is coming again, first for His own, and then in glorious revelation of Himself as the judge of all the world. His victory over all His enemies will then be complete, and He shall reign forever and ever.

The Cedarville Nifty Stitches met Monday afternoon at the home of Joann Frame. Seven girls worked on their useful article projects. During the business meeting, the group decided to meet again with Joann Frame on June 19. Norma J. Conates 4-H Club Reporter.

FOR SALE—Slabwood cut for the stove or furnace by the cord. Can deliver. Dial. 6-2201
Arthur HannaPROBATE COURT
Greene County, Ohio

Accounts and Vouchers in the following named persons and estates have been filed in the Probate Court of Greene County, for inspection, settlement, and record, and unless there is a motion filed for hearing same on or before the 17th day of July, 1944, they will be ordered confirmed and recorded.

First and Final Accounts

Lessie Van Horn, Trustee, Emma C. Ervin, deceased.
Frances E. Geis, Executrix, Chas. E. Geis, deceased.
Phillip D. Gerhardt, Administrator, Gertrude Greve, deceased.
Lenna A. Jones, Administratrix, Clara Logan Brooks, Administratrix, Eva Logan, deceased.
Eleanor Holland Hickerson, Adm'r, W. W. A., Minnie J. Neill, aka Minnie Craig, deceased.
Mildred T. Shepherd, Administratrix, Etta Shepherd, deceased.
Theron A. White, Executor, George C. White, deceased.

First, Final and Distributive Accounts

Mildred A. Linskey, Administratrix, Frank C. Adams, deceased.
Louise Allen, Administratrix, Elizabeth M. Dill, deceased.
George Kockentiet, Administrator, Minnie Kockentiet, deceased.
Harry H. Stephenson, Executor, Cassius C. Stephenson, deceased.

Miscellaneous Accounts

Emma Booth, Administratrix, Andrew H. Booth, deceased. Statement in Lieu of and for an account.
Phillip D. Gerhardt, as Adm'r. of Sebastian Gerhardt, deceased, Trustee of Christena Borne Fund, Ninth and Final Account.
Marcus Shoup, Guardian, Sarah Funderburgh, First Account.
Eldora Gano, Executrix, Charles Gano, First Account.
S. R. Bales, Guardian of Sarah E. Gerard, Incompetent, First Account.
Mrs. Jack Groth, Gdn., Peter G. Herr, Incompetent, Thirteenth Account.
Ruth A. Lewis, Administratrix of Albert Lewis, deceased, Statement in Lieu of and for an account.
Arthur C. McCormick, Guardian, Jeanette McCormick, eighth account.
Alice M. Moore, Administratrix, J. R. Moore, deceased, Statement in Lieu of and for an account.
William A. Miller, Guardian, Joseph N. Nash, incompetent, third account.
Helen N. Randall, Administratrix, Harry F. Randall, deceased, Statement in Lieu of and for an account.
R. M. Neeld, Guardian, Minnie B. Thomas, incompetent, Second Account.
Osborn Presbyterian Church, Osborn, Ohio, Trustees, Elizabeth S. Wallace, deceased, Thirteenth account.
L. T. Marshall, Guardian Sarah E. Watson, Incompetent, Fourth and Final Account.
June 9, 1944.

NOTICE OF PROCEEDINGS FOR DIVORCE

Laura Caudill, whose place of residence is Sharkey, Kentucky, is hereby notified that the undersigned Henry Caudill has filed his petition against her for divorce in Case No. 23,532, in the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Ohio, alleging gross neglect of duty as the grounds for the same, and that this cause will be for hearing on or after the 29th day of July, 1944.
(6-16-6-7-28)HENRY CAUDILL,
By Morris D. Rice, As His Attorney

INVEST 10 PER-CENT OF YOUR WEEKLY PAY IN WAR BONDS

Friday And Saturday
THRILL NITES!
—SCREEN—
"Stars On Parade"
With
Larry Parks,
Lynn Merrick
Sun. Mon. Tues.
KAY FRANCIS
CAROLE LANDIS
MARTHA RAYE
MITZI MAYFAIR
FOUR JILLS IN A JEEP

LEGAL NOTICE

Best Price, whose place of residence is unknown and cannot with diligence be ascertained will take notice that on May 25th, 1944, Grace Price, filed her certain action against him for divorce on the grounds of wilful absence for more than three years before the Common Pleas Court of Greene County, Ohio, said case being No. 23,510 on the docket of said Court. That the same will come on for hearing on or after July 15th, 1944.
(6-2-6-7-7) MARCUS SHOUP, Attorney for Plaintiff

NOTICE OF PROCEEDINGS FOR DIVORCE

James Floyd Burts, Sr., whose place of residence is unknown to the undersigned, is hereby notified that the undersigned Vivian Maxine Burts has filed her petition against him for divorce in Case No. 23,492 of the Court of Common Pleas of Greene County, Ohio, alleging gross neglect of duty as the grounds for the divorce, and praying for a divorce from the said Defendant and for custody of the two minor children belonging to the Plaintiff and Defendant, and that said cause will be for hearing on or after the 17th day of June, 1944.
(5-5-6-6-7) VIVIAN MAXINE BURTS, By Morris D. Rice, Her Attorney

LEGAL NOTICE

Charles McDaniel, whose present address is unknown will take notice that on May 12th, Ruth E. McDaniel, your wife, filed her action for divorce in the Common Pleas Court of Greene County, Ohio, being case No. 23,502 of the Records of said Court. Said case will be for hearing on or after six (6) weeks from the date of the first publication of this notice, to-wit: May 26th, 1944, and you are required to answer within that time or judgment may be taken against you.
(5-26-6-6-30) RUTH E. McDANIEL, By Smith, McCallister & Gibney, Her Attorneys.

A NAME THAT STANDS FOR GOOD FURNITURE BUDGET PLAN AVAILABLE Adair's N. Detroit St. Xenia, O.

FARMS FOR SALE AND FARM LOANS We have many good farms for sale on easy terms. Also make farm loans at 4% interest for 15 years. No application fee and no appraisal fee. Write or Inquire McSavane & Co. London O. Leon H. Kling, Mgr.

Pipe, Valves and Fittings for water, gas and steam, Hand and Electric Pumps for all purposes, Bolts, Pulleys, V Belts, Plumbing and Heating Supplies.

J. P. BOCKLETT SUPPLY CO. XENIA, OHIO

QUICK SERVICE FOR DEAD STOCK XENIA FERTILIZER PHONE MA. 454 Reverse Charges E. G. Buchsieb, Xenia, Ohio

Eyes Examined, Glasses Fitted, Reasonable Charges. Dr. C. E. Wilkin Optometric Eye Specialist Xenia, Ohio

CLIFF
HOLDS FLAC
The Cedar Cliff held its annual "at the United P. Wednesday, June and guests were serving was by t School class of t After luncheon was held in the with Mrs. J. Mrs. Walter Cor solos, "I Hear A and "American B by Mrs. J. M. Ha Mrs. M. J. Ba Stars Through t Mrs. W. W. G Day speaker, ric esting paper on " Mrs. William I rendered an orig accompanied by Mrs. Harris an a beautiful duet, Mildred Foster. C don, State Chapl A. R. War Time Installation of was made by M Mrs. Raymond W Mrs. George Bra Mrs. Harold Rea and Miss Wilma Mrs. S. V. Onden W. A. Condon, C Davis, Registrar.

THIS IS LA
Chief Wm. M the last warning as to riding bicyc and continuing n on the streets at night. Offenders to Juvenile Court

GARDI
Mrs. Leo Ande ren Barber will sington Club at noon at the And annual "guest d Weaver of Lawr guest speaker.

Children's Day the United P School beginning bath.

The Variety S has been postpo certain materials date will be an

Among the ou here to attend, R. McChesney Norman Sweet, D. Kneisley, O Earl Collins, T Mo., Mr. and Miss Mary Ruth John L. Dorst, S rence, and Rev. Herbert Main, Mrs. Paul Creev Dean and Miss and many other SUPERIOR a decisive peace. T ways full the way.

We are EQUIPPED ing, wid modern funeral the high cenance

Mc FUR CEDAR

Fri. and Bela Lus "The Retu COMEDY S Wed. and Deanna D "HIS B FOX N Sun. an Errol H "NOR Paramoun

Club and Social Activities

CEDAR CLIFF CHAPTER D. A. R. HOLDS FLAG DAY LUNCHEON

The Cedar Cliff Chapter, D. A. R., held its annual "Flag Day luncheon" at the United Presbyterian Church, Wednesday, June 14. Fifty members and guests were in attendance. The serving was by the McKibben Sunday School class of the church.

After luncheon the main meeting was held in the church auditorium with Mrs. J. M. Harris in charge. Mrs. Walter Corry rendered two vocal solos, "I Hear America Calling" and "American Patrol," accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Harris.

Mrs. M. J. Bahin, Springfield, read Stars Through the "Perilous Night". Mrs. W. W. Galloway was Guest Day speaker, reading a very interesting paper on "History of the Flag".

Mrs. William Lafferty, Springfield, rendered an original Flag Day solo, accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Harris.

Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Lafferty sang a beautiful duet, accompanied by Mrs. Mildred Foster, Charles A. Dorn, London, State Chaplain, gave a talk on D. A. R. War Time Projects.

Installation of officers for 1944-45 was made by Mrs. Charles A. Dorn, Mrs. Raymond Williamson as Regent; Mrs. George Bralley as Vice Regent; Mrs. Harold Reinhard as Secretary; and Miss Wilma Spencer, treasurer. Mrs. S. V. Oenderdonk, Historian; Mrs. W. A. Condon, Chaplain and Mrs. I. C. Davis, Registrar.

THIS IS LAST CHANCE

Chief Wm. Marshall states this is the last warning to be given children as to riding bicycles on the side walks and continuing noise and rowdiness on the streets at all hours of the night. Offenders will be taken direct to Juvenile Court.

GARDEN PARTY

Mrs. Leo Anderson and Mrs. Warren Barber will entertain the Kensington Club at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Anderson home for the annual "guest day". Mrs. Norman Weaver of Lawrenceville, O., will be guest speaker.

Children's Day will be observed by the United Presbyterian Sabbath School beginning at 10:30 A. M., Sabbath.

The Variety Show set for June 20 has been postponed due to failure of certain materials to arrive. Future date will be announced later.

Among the out-of-town personages here to attend the funeral of Dr. W. R. McChesney were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sweet, Rossford, O., Mr. Ira D. Kneisley, Osborn, O., President Earl Collins, Tarkio College, Tarkio, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Blair Brasel and Miss Mary Ruth Wham, Carter, Ill., John L. Dorst, Springfield, W. R. Torrence, and Rev. Miller, Xenia; Rev. Herbert Main, Loveland; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Creswell, Xenia; Mrs. F. L. Dean and Miss Jessie Maxwell, Xenia, and many others.

The Value of PROPER EQUIPMENT

SUPERIOR EQUIPMENT has a decisive value in war or peace. The means are always fully as necessary as the way.

WE ARE PROPERLY EQUIPPED by scientific training, wide experience and modern facilities to provide funeral services that reach the highest plane of excellence yet attained.

McMILLAN
Funeral Home
CEDARVILLE - PHONE 6-1071

COZY

• THEATRE •

Fri. and Sat., June 16-17
Bela Lugosi - Freda Inescort
"The Return of the Vampire"
COMEDY SNAPSHOTS MUSICAL

Wed. and Thurs. June 21-22
Deanna Durbin - Franchot Tone
"HIS BUTLER'S SISTER"
FOX NEWS - CARTOON

Sun. and Mon., June 18-19
Errol Flynn - Julie Bishop
"NORTHERN PURSUIT"
Paramount News - "Danger Area"

Life Review of Dr. W. R. McChesney

(Continued from first page)

TRIBUTE PAID EDUCATOR AND CITIZEN

(Continued from first page)

Dr. McChesney should set his face toward the preaching profession. Soon after his arrival in Cedarville, his abilities in that line were recognized. He never attended a seminary, but he studied theology privately under his father-in-law, Dr. J. F. Morton, and was licensed by the Ohio Presbytery of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, on May 20, 1896. On May 24, 1900, he was ordained a regular minister of the gospel. From this time on, in whatever special task he was engaged, his office as an ambassador of Jesus Christ was always uppermost in his mind. He was elected Moderator of General Synod in 1908. Unless necessarily prevented, he was continuous in his attendance at the meetings of General Synod, serving on the Home and Foreign Mission Boards, and as Treasurer of the Board of Education, and on the Supervising Board of the Houston Kentucky Mission. In his later years he preached hundreds of sermons in churches of various denominations in Ohio and neighboring states, and received many calls, which he constantly declined.

Gov. John W. Bricker Sends His Regrets

Governor John W. Bricker, sent a telegram to the Herald Thursday evening upon his return from Washington, D. C., as follows:

"Thank you for wiring me regarding Dr. McChesney. I am sorry I did not return home in time to attend the funeral. Ohio has lost a good citizen and your community will suffer a tremendous loss with his passing. He was a fine gentleman and a loyal friend."

Myers Y. Cooper-Staunch Friend of Dr. McChesney

Ex-Governor Myers Y. Cooper, Cincinnati, was in Chicago at the time we wired him of Dr. McChesney's death. "He writes: 'I was of course distressed to get the message regarding Dr. McChesney's passing; since you told me that he could not live but a few weeks at most. I did want to come to the funeral but it just so happens I could not do so due to previous engagement. I am writing Mrs. McChesney a note of sympathy. May I express my thanks to you for advising me as to the funeral.'"

We Have Lost A Scholar Says R. O. Wead

The following statement has been issued by R. O. Wead, cashier of the Xenia National Bank concerning the life of Dr. W. R. McChesney:

"In the passing of Dr. W. R. McChesney we have lost one of our most outstanding citizens; a great schoolman and a devout churchman. His fifty years of unselfish service at Cedarville College reached far beyond the boundaries of county and state by the influence of his pupils in their various lines of endeavor. He has left an indelible imprint upon the lives of all with whom he came in contact. We have lost a wonderful scholar, a great teacher, and a forceful preacher."

Pres. Ira D. Vayhinger Pays Tribute Former President

Dr. McChesney has been continuously identified with Cedarville College during its half century of history. He guided its teaching, for he was a great educator; he left the impress of his character upon the lives of his students; for he was a great Christian; and he commanded the respect and loyalty of all of his associates, because he kept his relations with them on a very high plane.

His life and influence will be perpetuated in the lives of the students who sat under him in the class room and who heard him preach in his forceful manner. His spirit has permeated their lives and will be transmitted through them to countless thousands of others who never knew Dr. McChesney.

As Cedarville College enters its second half century of history it does so with an abiding faith in the principles of education, religion and democracy so ably exemplified in the life of Dr. McChesney and so admirably expressed in his fifty years of service. Out of the inspiration of his life Cedarville College will continue to emphasize the necessity of training the mind, the heart and the hand together.

MUSICAL PROGRAM AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A Musical program will be presented Tuesday evening, June 27th at 8:30 o'clock, in the Church auditorium. The program will consist of new and old choral favorites, together with vocal and instrumental numbers. Miss Basso will present readings.

There will be no sale of tickets, but a free will offering will be received. Tea will be served following the concert by the "Broadcasters" Class of the Sabbath School. A cordial invitation is given the public to attend.

NO CHURCH NOTES

Due to a lack of space and time the usual church notes had to be dispensed with this week.

—BUY WAR BONDS TODAY

His second marriage was on June 5, 1945, to Miss Mary Turner, formerly of the Houston Kentucky Mission Station, who survives him.

Hon. J. A. Gordon, of Cadiz, O., adds the following tribute:

"While Dr. McChesney has passed from among us, his life will long be a cherished memory, one of the sincerity, a cultured and polished gentleman. My intimate friendship as a fellow-student in Franklin College, and a college in the 95th General Assembly of Ohio, causes me to note his passing with very deep sorrow. When there pass before my mind's eye in grand review the many friends of college life, the passing will be made more resplendent by his being in it."

Mr. Elmer Jurkat entered O. S. U., Monday for special summer school courses.

TO LOCATE IN PERTH AMBOY

Mrs. Fred Shaw and three sons, Frank, Bill and Frederick, of Indianapolis, Ind., formerly of this place stopped here Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reinhard They were on their way to Perth Amboy, N. J., where Mr. Shaw is employed with the Phillips-Carey Paper Co. and where they will locate.

"FIFTY YEARS" NEXT WEEK

Followers of "Fifty Years of College Life" which has been running in the Herald is missing this week, but another chapter will be published in the next issue.

The Home Culture Club meeting which was to have been held with Mrs. C. E. Masters, has been postponed until further notice.

Gladys Cooper in "5-Acadamy Awards" Xenia Theatre

D. R. GEO. A. SMITH
DENTAL SURGEON
304 Mitchell Building
Cor. Limestone and High Sts.
Springfield, Ohio

Specializing in
EXTRACTIONS GAS X-RAY
IMMEDIATE PLATE AND BRIDGE WORK
Appointments Now Available
4061 Day and Night

Inside Look at an Oil Company in Wartime

A report to the people of Ohio . . . by The Standard Oil Company (Ohio)

1 IN UNIFORM FOR UNCLE SAM are more than one-third of our regular men employees. Sohioans in the service will find their old jobs, or better ones, waiting for them when they return. One of our greatest concerns is that they shall return to the opportunities and way of life which they are fighting to preserve.

2 OIL IS THE VERY LIFE-BLOOD of America's war effort—with aviation fuel an especially critical need. Sohio's production of aviation gasoline increased almost 300% in 1942 over the year before and was tripled again in 1943. To accomplish this, Sohio has converted existing equipment and has built new refinery units—all without calling on the government for financial aid.

3 MORE THAN HALF the tonnage of all war materials going to the fighting fronts are products of oil. There are hundreds of uses, besides gasoline: fuel oil for war ships, lubricants for engines on land, sea and in the air, oil for medicines and many other products. One example is asphalt for air strips and military roads. Sohio—only 18th in size among oil companies in the U. S.—last year became the nation's third largest producer of asphalt.

4 CRUDE OIL PRODUCTION was a relatively new effort for Sohio in 1943. Expanding our activities, we discovered a number of new fields and brought them into production, thus multiplying our crude oil output at a time when finding new sources of crude is increasingly important to war needs. Much oil remains to be found in the United States, and Sohio plans 20 to 100 wildcat wells in 1944 for discovery of new fields.

5 OIL IS KEPT MOVING by Sohio's extensive use of pipe lines and barges, thus saving already jammed rail transportation for other war materials. Today on the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers Sohio operates one of the largest inland-water fleets carrying oil in the country. Sohio owns and operates almost 3,000 miles of pipe lines.

6 KEEPING CARS RUNNING at home has been part of Sohio's wartime responsibility. This job has been done in spite of an acute shortage of manpower. We have trained new service station personnel, including many women, and have developed special car-washing services to provide the extra care your car needs to outlast the war.

7 ADVERTISING HAS GONE TO WAR. For instance, our SOHIO REPORTER, radio newscasts since war began has been devoted to our government's programs of conservation, bond buying, blood bank, etc. We are particularly pleased with a letter from the War Advertising Council, saying: "... appreciative thanks for the many ways in which your company has converted so many phases of its advertising to the support of war information campaigns. You have made a material contribution to the war effort."

8 GOOD EMPLOYEE RELATIONS is one of the most important continuing responsibilities of any company. Sohio provides security and pleasant working relations by offering its employees sick benefits, regular vacation with pay, low-cost group insurance and a liberal retirement plan. For example, a man who started with Sohio at age 23 and averaged $200 a month income over the length of his service, has been retired at 65 with an income of approximately $160 a month for life. Almost 400 Sohioans are now enjoying a comfortable, carefree life on this retirement income.

If you wish additional copies of this advertisement or a copy of our "Sohio Review of 1943" prepared originally for employees, we will be glad to send them to you. Simply address your request to:

President
The Standard Oil Company (Ohio)
Midland Building,
Cleveland 15, Ohio

SOHIO

GASOLINE POWERS THE ATTACK... DON'T WASTE A DROP!

NOTICE

Place of residence not with diligence notice that on the 15th, 1944, MARCUS SHOUP by Plaintiff

PROCEEDINGS

ORCE

Mr. Whose place given to the undersigned that the un-Maxine Burts has against him for di-402 of the Court
of Greene County,
neglect of duty
the divorce, and from the said custody of the two ing to the Plain-and that said
aring on or after e, 1944.

XINE BURTS,
Her Attorney

NOTICE

Whose present will take notice
Ruth E. McDaniel, action for divorce
as Court of Greene
g case No. 28,502
said Court. Said
aring on or after the date of the
this notice, to-wit:
at yo are required
that time or judg-
against you.
E. McDANIEL,

AT STANDS
GOOD
ATURE
T PLAN ABLE
ir's
Xenia, O.

SALE AND FARM LOANS
ood farms for sale
Also make farm
rest for 15 years.
ee and no apprais-or Inquire
o. London O.
Kling, Mgr.

and Fittings for Steam, Hand and
for all purposes,
y Belts, Plumbing
plies.

DOCKLETT
LY CO.
A, OHIO

SERVICE OR STOCK
NIA
ILIZER
Reverse Charges
b, Xenia, Ohio

Electric Eye
ialist
Ohio

This is the one that counts!

The MORE sweat and bonds . . .
The LESS blood and tears!

BACK THE ATTACK
BUY MORE THAN BEFORE

Greene County's Quota Is

$2,600,000

Greene County War Finance Committee

Frank L. Johnson, Chairman

Privately Sponsored

INSURE
Save with War

SIXTY-SEVEN

CONGRESS
HAPPENING
WASH

By CLARENCE
Member of C

Late authentic information indicates that the German invasion of France was much heavier than expected. While the fighting has been continuous, the invasion has been ahead of schedule. The strength of the German army thrown against the French has been the war against Germany since the recent American army not be overlooked, thereof will be far-reaching.

Last Thursday afternoon, a single dissenting vote prevented the passage of the War Relocation Authority Appropriation Act, which provides for the Army in the coming year. The bill, which begins July 1st, will make unnecessary all this huge future of war, good creation permit no military production or final victory has been minutes after the war bill was passed. The large flight of bombers had succeeded in Japan in an hour in that safe landings. American troops in hands—another long to Tokyo.

The Price Control House last Wednesday immediately sent to committee, where an attempt was made to work out the measure. In a week of OPA were able to law a number of amendments. One of the amendments, which regulation, which changes to selling price ranges as to other amendments. The right of price regulations, any Federal Court would require agriculture commodities while still another the law would permit increased taxes on rental charges on Rent Control Act in mind that any amendments may be made or greatly influence Committee.

The House is action early this Termination Act means and methods so that private industry to production the earliest possible voiding a long unemployment. It is, of course, to draft nature that will version of war time manufacturing time giving production and waste.

Over-the-week selling in Washington
(Continued)

Chicago

This is year's Key